Please do not allow the use of cell phones aboard commercial aircraft. There is already enough conversational noise and distractions without the addition of the unnecessary chatter of talking on telephones. Too many people using cell phones talk too loud and disturb others in close proximity where one has an opportunity to move away from them. Not true on an aircraft. Thank you for your consideration.